

THE MOST ENRICHING LOW-RESIDENCY MFA IS ALSO ONE OF THE MOST AFFORDABLE.

In the 65-credit-hour Spalding MFA program, you'll write more and receive more faculty feedback than in less rigorous programs. Writers thrive with this extra attention in our encouraging, non-competitive environment. Friendships form at our elegant "dormitory," the historic Brown Hotel, a short walk from campus in downtown Louisville. A study-abroad option offers further riches. And our flexible scheduling and affordable tuition put a top-tier low-residency MFA education within reach.
