

AMHERST WRITERS & ARTISTS

Amherst Writers & Artists is a non-profit arts organization whose mission is to support the voices of established and emerging writers, to free silenced and marginalized voices, and to promote respect for the artist in all writers through the use of the AWA method.

WRITE WITH US

Experience the Method - Join an AWA-method writing group, workshop or retreat. Use our searchable directory to find workshop that supports your unique voice.

LEARN TO LEAD

And change lives. Our training program prepares you to offer your own writing workshops using AWA's unique strengths-based approach.

BUILD YOUR PRACTICE

Our affiliate program supports and connects you with the AWA community. Build a sustainable practice as a leader of AWA Method workshops.

Our community is made up of AWA-certified leaders and the writers they serve. Writers in AWA groups live around the world. They share their words in diverse settings: jails, hospitals, senior centers, living rooms, elementary school classrooms, museums and more.

