

BLACK

Book Two of The Firebrand Trilogy

David Kettlehake

RETURN TO THE BRUTAL WORLD OF GRAY

Scout knew she only had a handful of days left before she went Gray, changing into a creature that was no longer human. After witnessing the horror of her friends and family going Gray, she was devastated when her own inevitable transformation began. But when that didn't happen, Scout realized she was gaining powers that not only insured her survival, but allowed her to cross the flooded wasteland in search of her brother.

Together, they must find a cure to prevent everyone they love from turning into monsters. But they will need help, and whether it comes from the brilliant, enigmatic boy named Google, or from the mysterious man who has somehow resisted going Gray, she knows one thing for sure: she is humanity's last hope.

“Black is not only a continuation but a hell of a story in its own right. David outdid himself and if you read Gray, then you NEED to read Black... Clean writing, terrific dialogue and unique tight storytelling are the hallmarks of David's books...you will not be disappointed.”

—James L. Christina Writer, publisher,
LA TALK RADIO host

BROTHER
MOCKINGBIRD
publishing

Gray, the first book in The Firebrand Trilogy is on sale now for 99¢ (ebook). You can get the first chapter of Black for FREE on Brother Mockingbird's website.

Distributor: Ingram

Pub Date: Oct 2021

ISBN: 978-1-7378411-1-1

Trim: 5 x 8

Price: $14.99

Format: Paperback

Pages: 320

YOUNG ADULT FICTION / Dystopian

YOUNG ADULT FICTION / Action & Adventure /

Survival Stories

YOUNG ADULT FICTION / Zombies

AUDIENCE

- Fans of dystopian novels
- Teens and adults
- Readers of The Hunger Games series or YA series with strong female lead character
- Fans of survival stories