

PhiladelphiaStories

Building a community of writers, artists, and readers across the Delaware Valley

2022 Marguerite McGlinn Prize for Fiction!

- Deadline: June 15, 2022
- Previously unpublished works of fiction up to 8,000 words.
- Multiple submissions will be accepted for the contest only.
- All authors currently residing in the United States are eligible.
- Submissions will only be accepted via the website. See link below!
- There is a $15 reading fee for each story submitted.
- All entrants will receive a complimentary copy of the Philadelphia Stories contest issue.

Camille Acker holds a B.A. in English from Howard University and an M.F.A. in Creative Writing from New Mexico State University and has more than fifteen years' experience as a writer and editor. She co-edited Dismantle: An Anthology from the VONA/Voices Workshop and co-founded the website for and about single women, The Spinsters Union. Her work has appeared in Fandor, NewCity, Fusion, DAME, and is forthcoming in Hazlitt, among others.

Her short story collection, Training School for Negro Girls, was published by The Feminist Press in October 2018.

Click here to submit today!